

GROUP MASTER APPLICATION
COMPENSATION DISCLOSURE INSERT

Part I: Disclosure regarding producer compensation

Your insurance or benefits advisor can offer you advice and guidance as you select the policy and provider most appropriate for your needs. At UnumProvident we recognize the important role these professionals play in the sale of our products and services and offer them a variety of compensation programs. Your advisor can provide you with information about these programs as well as those available from other providers. We support disclosure of advisor compensation so that customers can make an informed buying decision.

If you would like additional information about the range of compensation programs our company offers, you can find more details at www.unumprovident.com/brokercompensation. Should you have other questions not addressed by the website or if you want to speak to us directly about advisor compensation, please call: 1-800-633-7491.

=====

Part II: For those customers who are also paying a fee to an insurance advisor

Compensation for advisor services may be available from insurance carriers, from clients, or from both. For any customer paying a fee to an advisor in connection with the purchase of insurance from UnumProvident, we require the customer's written consent before we will pay any compensation to the advisor. Sign below if:

- (1) you are paying your advisor a fee for this insurance transaction; and
- (2) you consent to our also paying compensation to your advisor, and to the extent you are interested, you have received information about the amount or formula for such compensation.

If you do not consent to your advisor receiving additional compensation from our company, do not sign below.

Policyholder Signature: _____

Date: _____

Print Policyholder Name: _____
(must be officer of the company)